Mr. Nailon asked the undersigned officer if he would be permitted to travel to Florida between June 5-11, 2014, for employment purposes, as he would be paid approximately $900. Due to the request involving overnight travel, the undersigned officer consulted with Supervising United States Probation Officer Barbara R. Kerrigan (SUSPO BRK), who approved this request, contingent that Mr. Nailon satisfy his $90 special assessment balance upon returning to the District of New Jersey. The undersigned officer conveyed SUSPO BRK's stipulation to his travel request being granted, and Mr. Nailon agreed to obtain a $90 money order upon returning to New Jersey to satisfy his special assessment. However, as of this date, Mr. Nailon has failed to comply with SUSPO BRK's directive, despite the undersigned officer reminding him on several occasions, and advising that the Court will be notified.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

The undersigned officer provided Mr. Nailon with a verbal reprimand on several occasions since he returned from his travel to Florida, as well as written reminders, directing him to satisfy his special assessment. However, as of this date, Mr. Nailon has failed to do so, and he owes $90 toward his special assessment.

No Court action is recommended at this time. However, by Your Honor's response and signature below, the undersigned officer shall provide this document to Mr. Nailon as an Official Judicial Letter of Reprimand, and advise him that should he fail to satisfy his special assessment balance of $90 without delay, a more stringent sanction will follow.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Denise E. Valletto-Haywood
U.S. Probation Officer
